XXV

National Congress

of the Portuguese Society for

Group Analysis and Group Analytic Psychotherapy

GROUP ANALYSIS IN TRANSFORMATION

IDENTITY AND CHANGE

12 November 2026
5h20pm, London/Lisbon time

SPGPAG
Sociedade Portuguesa de Grupanálise e Psicoterapia Analítica de Grupo

Faculdade de Psicologia
UNIVERSIDADE DE LISBOA

By Zoom or in person

Participants must register at this link or send an email to spgpag.pt@gmail.com Students:15€ Professionals:20€

The Portuguese Society for Group Analysis and Analytical Group Psychotherapy and the Faculty of Psychology at the University of Lisbon will host, Farhad Dalal, PhD, will speak on "The Emergence of the Moral Sensibility and its implications for the practice of psychotherapy". Farhad Dalal is a renowned psychotherapist and Group Analyst in private practice in UK. With colleagues, he is delivering a group psychotherapy training in India. He has published four books to date: : "Taking the Group Seriously", "Race, Colour and the Processes of Racialization", "Thought Paralysis: The Virtues of Discrimination", and "CBT–The Cognitive Behavioural Tsunami: Managerialism, Politics and the Corruptions of Science". He is currently writing on ethics.

Isaura Manso Neto, MD, will provide commentary on Farhad Dalal's lecture. Isaura Manso Neto is a renowned psychiatrist, Group Analyst, and psychoanalytic psychotherapist, worked with multi-family therapeutic groups within the psychoanalytic/group-analytic model in Portugal. Isaura Manso Neto is also a Full Member of the Group Analytic Society International (GASi).